

I believe that the millions of dollars that are wasted each month on the LifeLine program would be much better served on the E-Rate program!